Ashen Stars

Dead Rock Seven

Something is killing workers in an exhausted mine on asteroid SIS-45546. If the Lasers' suspicions are correct, this heralds the return of a deadly foe once thought defeated.

The Justice Trade

The Lasers receive a planetary distress call from a world that has detected a seemingly derelict spaceship moving toward it at relativistic velocities on a collision course. The impact will destroy the planet, and the lasers are the only ones who can prevent it. Their investigation brings them up against the political machinations and scientific manipulations devised by two powerful figures who each seek to shape the future of the Bleed.

The Lasers get a distress call from a world which has a derelict spaceship on a collision course towards it at relativistic velocities, and they're the only ones who can stop it destroying the planet.

Truth & Reconciliation

Hired to protect a corporate executive in advance of an important trade deal, the Lasers discover this mission is more complex than they expected - their client may be responsible for crimes during the war.

Hired to protect an executive before an important trade deal, the Lasers discover this mission is more complex than they thought - their client may be responsible for crimes during the Mohilar war.

Mutant City Blues

Blastback

An accident at a mutant-only gym brings the characters into the shadowy world of mutant prize-fighting.

The Kids Aren't Alright

An attack in a Mutant City high school suggests that there's at least one unidentified mutant among the students. As the characters investigate, they find a mutant dorphing ring.

Mutate the Streets

The ghost flu transformed humanity, leaving a small minority of people with paranormal powers. But it didn't transform society, it didn't transform the economy.

The radical Mutate Wall Street movement fell apart a few years ago, but now, with election fever gripping the nation, it's back. And with some candidates voicing anti-mutant sentiments, the streets are a dangerous place tonight between protest and counter-protect.

Normally, you're the Mutant Crimes Division, but tonight you've got your riot gear on. Keeping the city streets safe tonight is going to take more than superpowers...
